“I had a fantastic late-night dining experience at Stalactites. Even during the late hours, the place was bustling and had a great, high-energy atmosphere.

The highlight was definitely the Chicken Giros Platter. The meat was perfectly spit-roasted—tender, flavorful, and seasoned beautifully with Greek herbs. It came with a generous side of crispy chips, a fresh Greek salad, and a block of feta that pulled everything together.

The interior is also really unique with its namesake "stalactite" ceiling, which adds a cool vibe to the meal. Whether you're looking for a proper sit-down Greek dinner
